

NINA CAUSEY

She is a seasoned Jazz, Blues, & Contemporary Vocalist/Pianist, & she has traveled and toured, performing nationally and internationally.

Education

She received a Bachelor of Music from Roosevelt University & a Master of Music from The University of Illinois.

Nina studied classical piano at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago for many years. However, she started playing the piano when she was four years old by playing songs she heard on the radio and at church. She has a natural talent to play jazz and was self-taught in jazz, blues, and pop musical genres.

Musical Awards:

Nina Causey has received to date 13 awards in music including:

Best Female Jazz Performer 4x

Best Female Blues Performer 4x

Bay Area Image Award

Achievements in Music 2x

Northern California Music Entertainer's Award for Best Female Jazz Artist

Legends Role Model Award for outstanding contributions in the Oakland Bay Area USA communities and in recognition of her tireless and devoted work in the field of entertainment over the years

Starring Roles in Musical Productions:

Billie Holiday in "Lady Sings The Blues"

Dorothy Dandridge in "Carmen Jones"

Lena Horne in "The Cotton Club Revue"

Lena Horne in "Cabin in The Sky"

Lena Horne in "Horne to Strayhorn"

ACHIEVEMENTS IN MUSIC
AWARD

NINA CAUSEY

IMAGE
AWARD

NINA CAUSEY

© TOM DELLINGER

ARTISTO

©2011 Eric Muetterties Photography

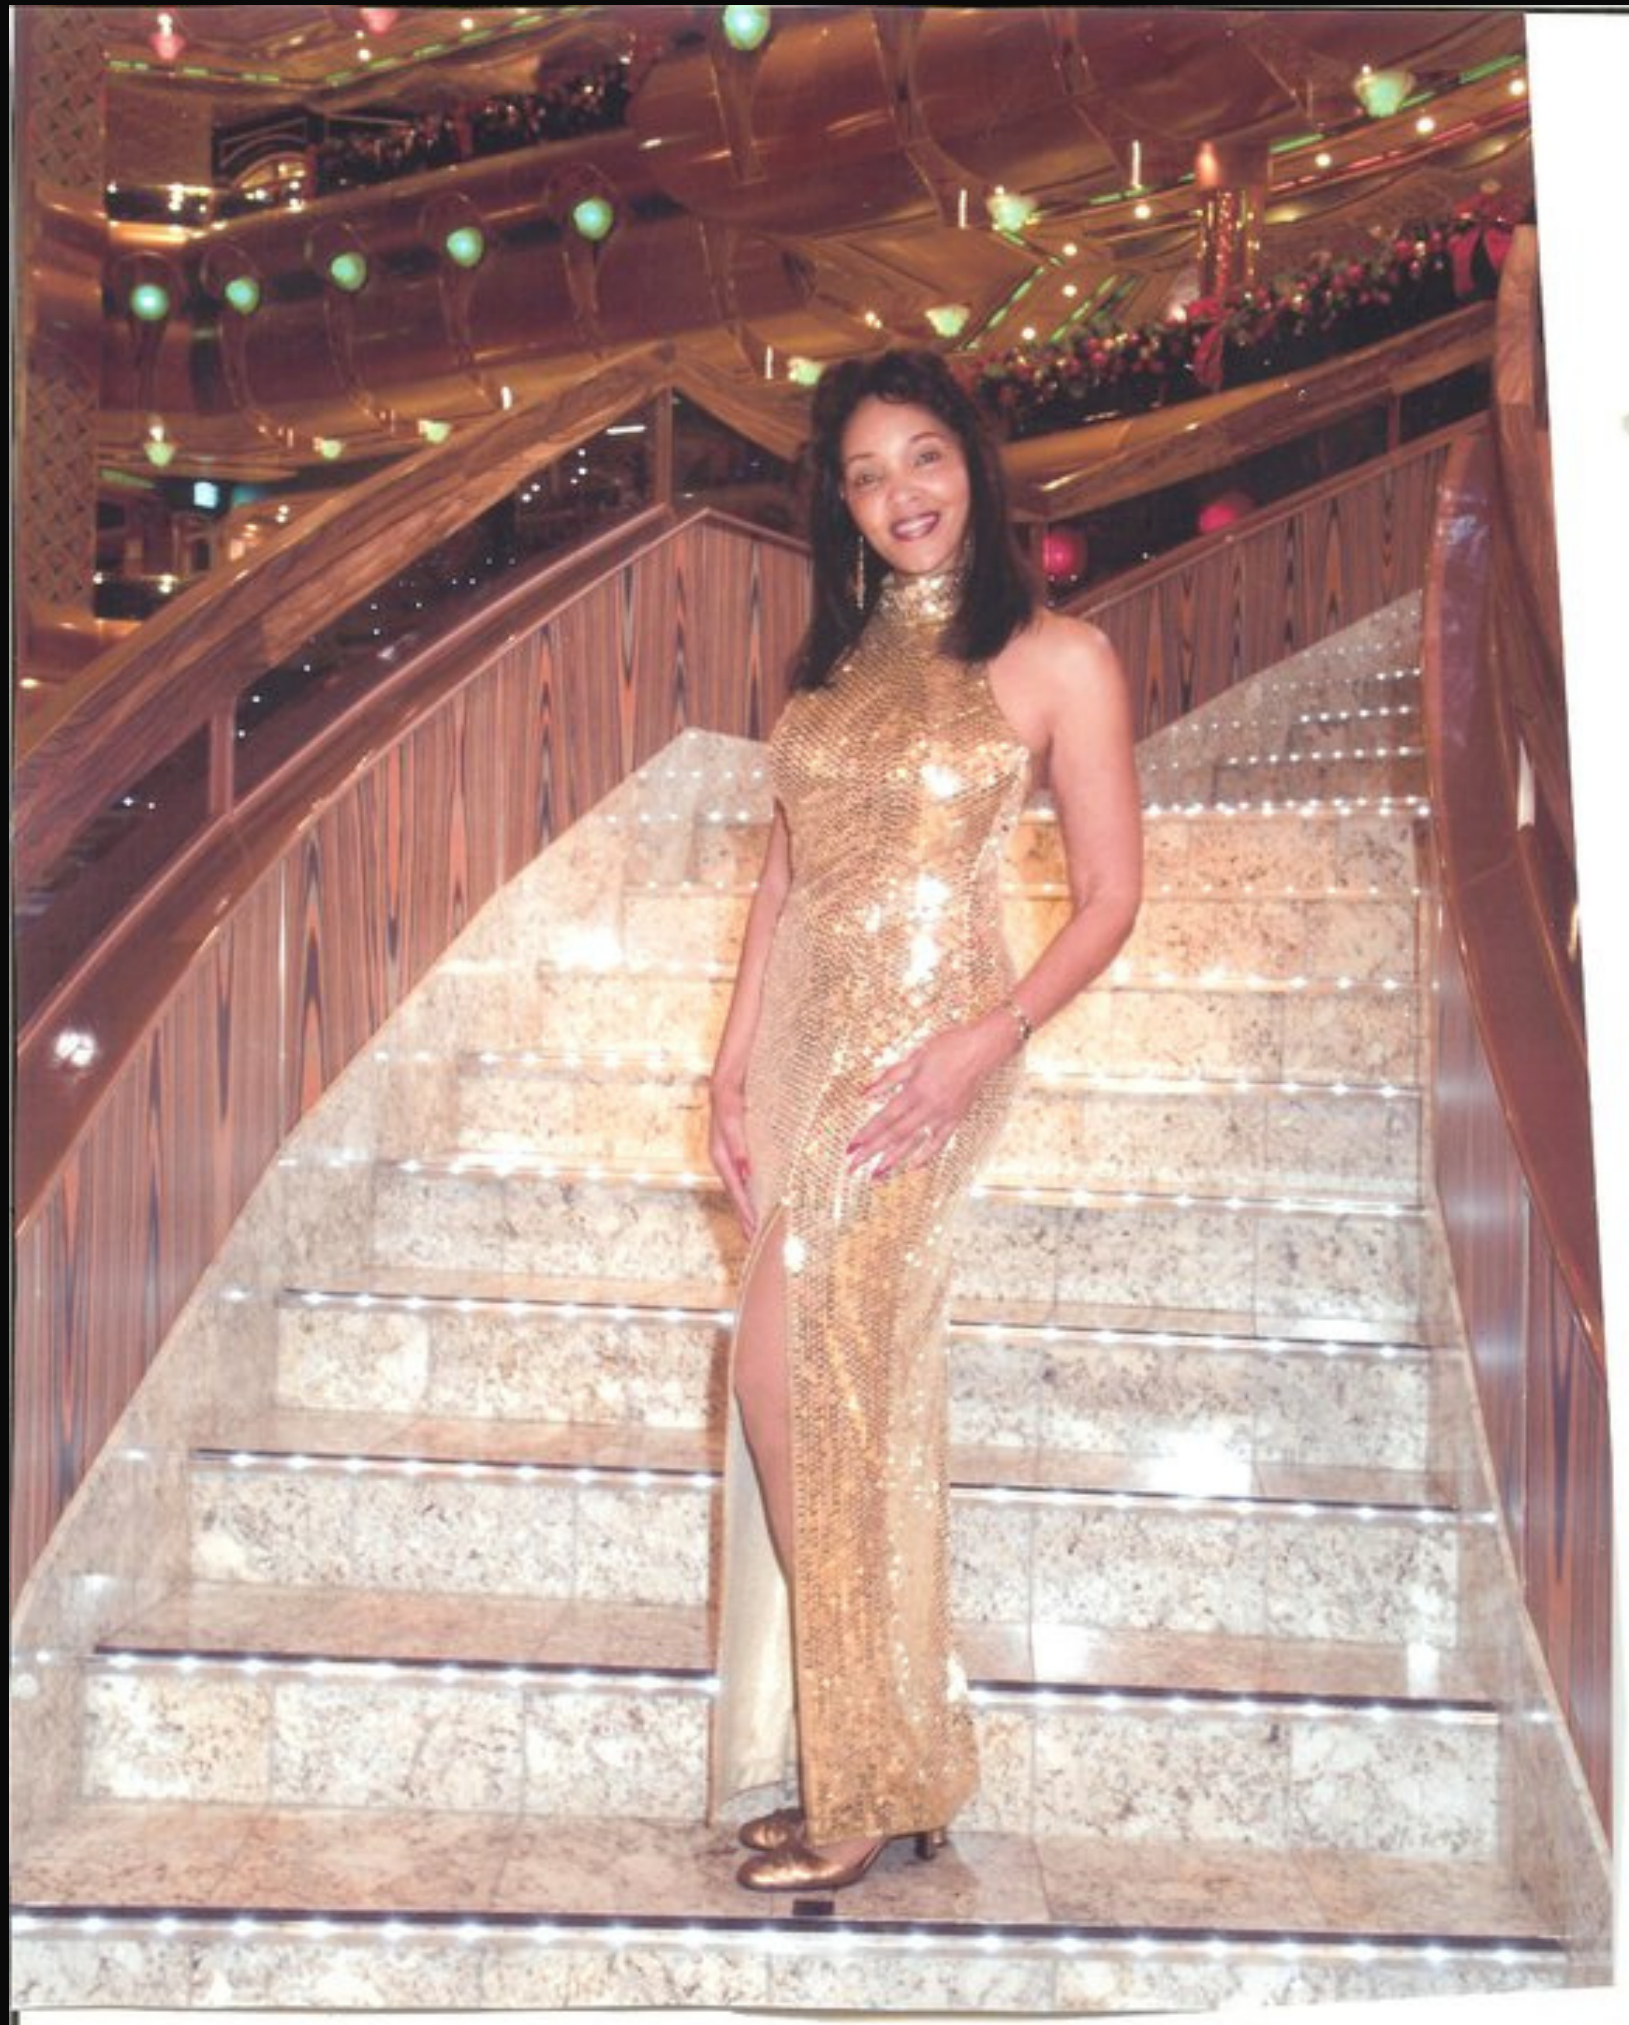

Photo by Jacalyn Evone

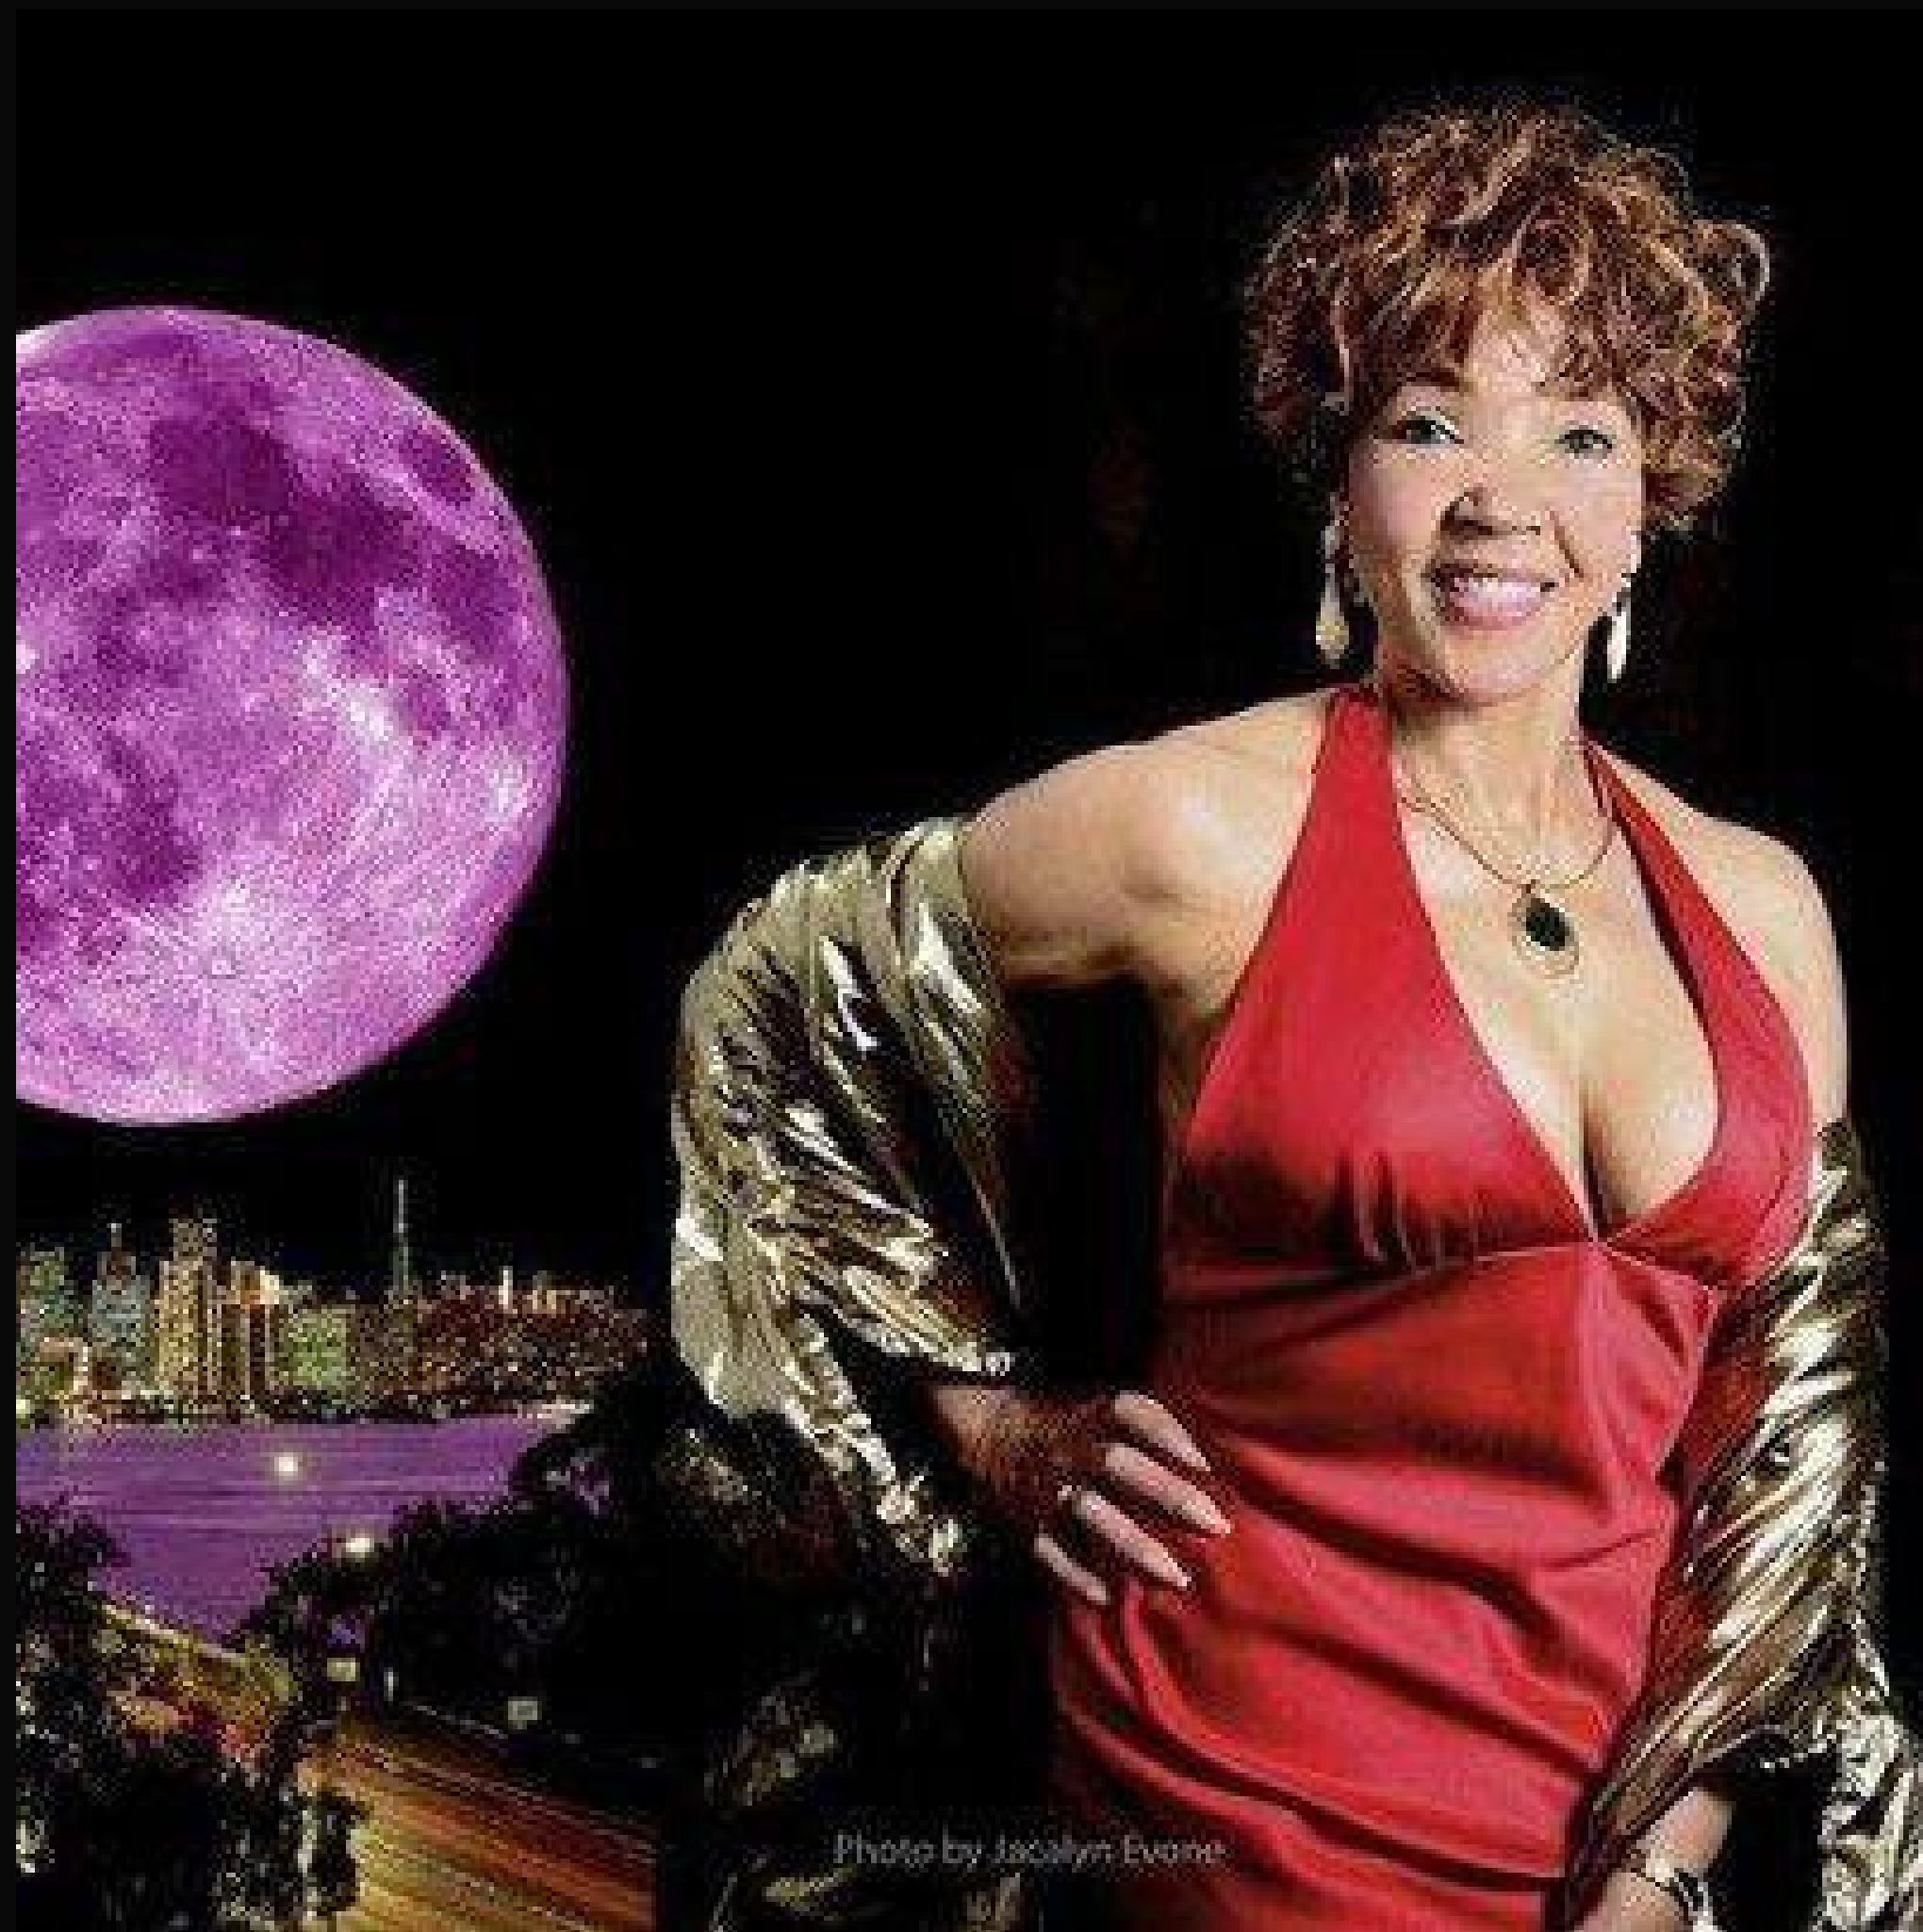

Photo by Jacalyn Evome

SUNSET PIANO & SAN FRANCISCO BOTANICAL GARDEN PRESENT

FLOWER PIANO

SEPTEMBER 17-21

Five Days of Pianos in the Garden

MEMBERS ENJOY EXPEDITED ENTRY, PASSES, AND DISCOUNTS!
membership or contact membership@sfbg.org

For more info & tickets:
sfbg.org/flowerpiano

Event Sponsors

Image: Travis Lange

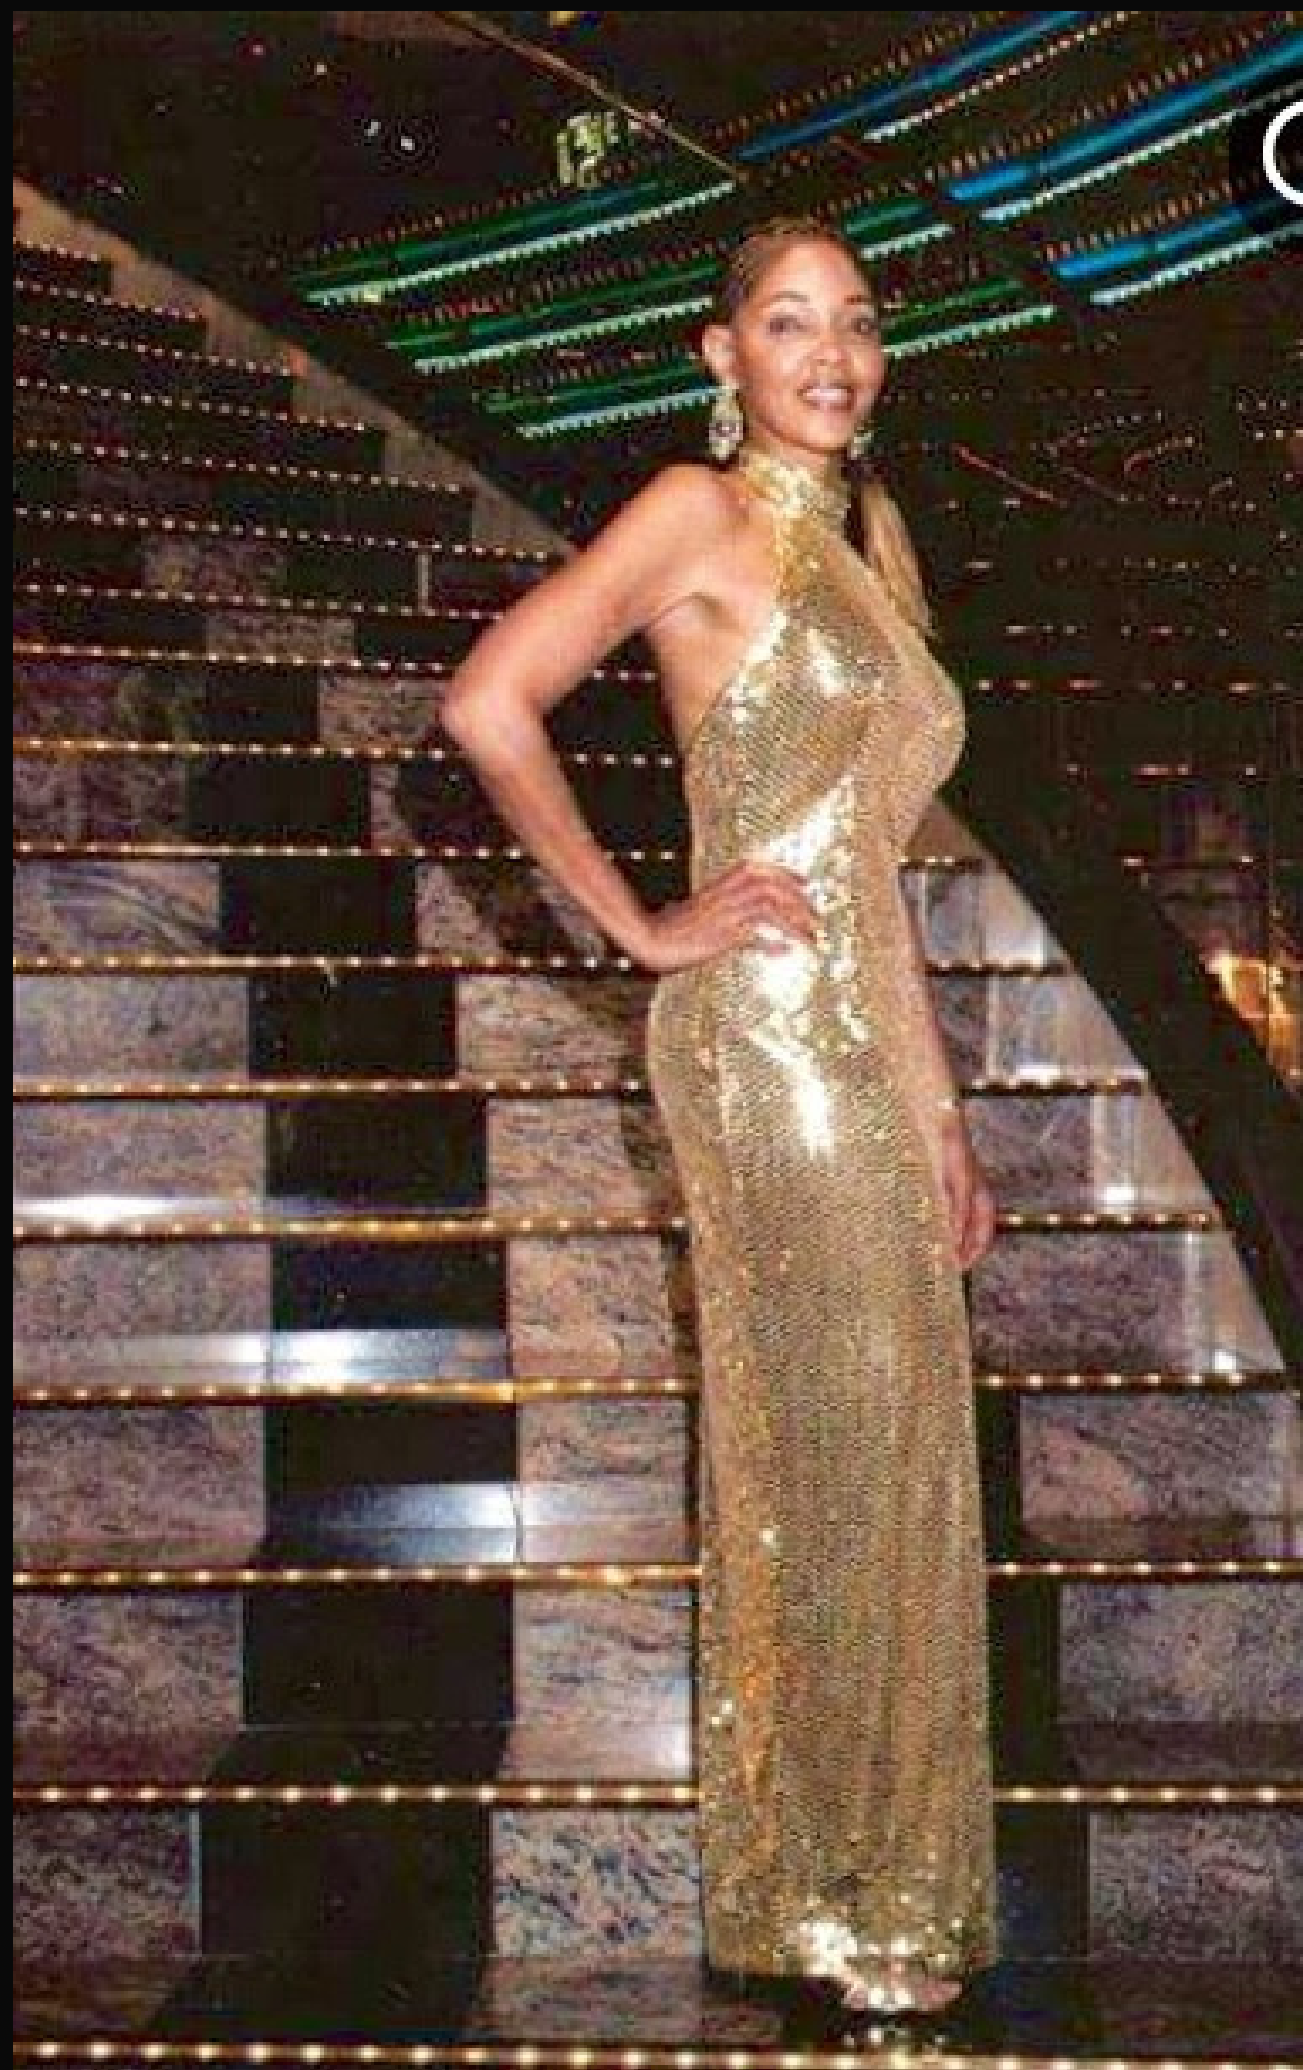

RichYeePhoto

ARTISTO